Archbishop warns of 'total collapse' in Nigeria

Catholic Archbishop Augustine Akubeze has lamented the divisions and violence that continue to mar Nigeria 60 years after its independence from Britain. British colonial rule over Nigeria ended on 1 October 1960, but 60 years on, Archbishop Akubeze said there was little to celebrate. In an address ...

Conflict in a Pandemic (I): The Southern Kaduna children and women devastated by a wave of killings

The echoes of conflict tend to reverberate long after the drums of war are beat and have faded. The victims of strife are often the weak, disenfranchised and powerless. In spite of their mute voices and non-roles, they tend to bear the heaviest brunt of conflicts while the main players march to the ...
